Directions from A343 from A303

Heading towards Salisbury, continue on the A343 past the Army Air Corp museum at Middle Wallop until you come down a hill to a crossroads at Middle Wallop. The George pub is on your left and you take a left at this junction towards Nether Wallop. Drive along Farley Street until you go past Winton Nursing home on your right. Just as the road bends to the right slightly, there is a small single lane track on your left on the corner of Gerrards Farm. Turn left into this track and then immediately turn right onto an unmade track. 100m along you will come to the Healing Herd on your left. Please park in the bright green area.

Directions from A30 (from Stockbridge)

After driving through Stockbridge, come up the hill and continue towards Salisbury until you see a signpost for "The Wallops" on the right. Take this turning and follow the road until you come to a T-junction and take a right turn which brings you into Nether Wallop. Stay on the winding road until you come a village green on your left, and take the farm Track on the right immediately opposite, and on the corner of Gerrards Farm.
